Greencore is a market leader in sandwiches, Italian chilled meals, branded chilled meals, chilled sauces, cooking sauces and pickles. Our customers include retailers, foodservice providers, manufacturers, and petrol forecourts.

With 15 manufacturing sites, we are a significant player in a number of exciting growth markets. Supply is normally in bulk quantities only, although we also have a unique nationwide chilled delivery service that supplies direct within the petrol forecourt and convenience sector.

We put people at the core of everything we do

At Greencore we have a strong and clear strategy for how we will continue to grow our business in the future. We call this The Greencore Way.

It is a simple model that brings together all the key elements of what we are about at Greencore. It is based on four core principles that are all central to how we deliver our vision. The most important principle is people at the core.

We are a highly people intensive business and we believe that we ultimately differentiate as a company through our people. Don't just take our word from it, hear it from our people by watching their own stories at greencore.com/careers
