

SECTION 172 (1) STATEMENT

The Company is a subsidiary of Grencore Group plc (the 'Group' or 'Grencore') and part of the Grencore group of companies. The Company has adopted the Group's extensive processes that are in place to engage with our broad range of stakeholders which are integral to our success.

Oversight of the Group, including the Company, is carried out at Group level which is responsible for setting strategic priorities including supporting stakeholder engagement. As usual with large companies, the Group delegates authority for the control and direction of the Company and the day-to-day management of the Company to the Group Chief Executive Officer and the Group Executive Team. To ensure alignment with the legal entity framework members of the Group Executive Team make up the directors of the Company, together with a finance expert. The Group promotes high standards of corporate governance throughout the organisation and the Company's Board upholds these standards. The Company's Board holds meetings as and when required to consider the impact of key proposals and material matters affecting its business.

The Board of Directors of the Company (the 'Board') is committed, both individually and collectively, to promoting the success of the Company through regular engagement with all stakeholders including our colleagues, customers and the wider community. The Board recognises the importance of maintaining strong relationships with each of our key stakeholders and understanding their needs in order to deliver value and build a better, more resilient and sustainable business. When making decisions, the Board ensures that particular regard is given to the following matters set out in s 172(1) (a) – (f) of the Companies Act 2006:

- The likely consequences of any decision in the long term;
- The interests of the company's employees;
- The need to foster the company's business relationships with suppliers, customers and others;
- The impact of the company's operations on the community and the environment;
- The desirability of the company maintaining a reputation for high standards of business conduct; and
- The need to act fairly as between members of the company.

The Board is aware that the Company's actions and decisions impact all of our stakeholders and it ensures that there is regular dialogue taking place with stakeholders, which is carried out by those most relevant to the stakeholder group or issue, and discussed appropriately in the boardroom.

Our relationships and regular dialogue with stakeholders continued to be of utmost importance during the period as we navigated our way through challenges presented by the cost of living challenge and recessionary environment in the UK together. The table below sets out the Group's and the Company's approach to stakeholder engagement as the Company follows the Group's processes, why stakeholders matter and how these stakeholders influenced key decisions made during the financial year. Our stakeholders can be confident that the contents of our corporate reporting reflect the frameworks for strategy, stakeholder engagement, governance, risk management and culture as established and consistent with the Group and overseen by the Board.

Our suppliers – s172(1)(c)(e) The integrity of our suppliers is as important as the ingredients we source.	The Company's teams, interacts with our suppliers on a daily basis given the level of ingredients and packaging purchases we make. In particular, key suppliers with whom we have more strategic relationships are identified. From time to time, we hold detailed workshops with these key suppliers to drive strategies for mutual benefit to reassure suppliers of our stability, share our strategy on growth and sustainability and request support on ramp up volumes and quality. The continued focus on sustainability with our suppliers has seen the Group, which includes the Company, work with suppliers to source in ways that protect ecosystems, reduce emissions and enhance livelihoods. We also engage with suppliers on climate-related issues by setting minimum requirements and including climate performance in supplier selection and management processes. The ethical treatment of workers in the supply chain is also an increasing area of focus. We carry out rigorous ethical assessments of our raw materials to identify areas within our supply chains that are most at risk of modern slavery and human rights abuses. The Group Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, which applies to the Company as a subsidiary of the Group, also outlines the fundamental principles of integrity, confidentiality and legality when engaging with our stakeholders, including our suppliers. In addition to this it details the ethical behaviour standards required to be met by our suppliers. To ensure these standards are met, we carry out audits on high-risk suppliers and work with them to continually improve standards towards ensuring the human rights of workers in our supply chain are protected. It also outlines our focus on ethical and fair trading and how we strive to deal fairly and honestly with our suppliers to sustain our competitive advantage through the provision of excellent products and services. The Code of Ethics and Business Conduct is available to read on https://www.greencore.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/Greencore-Code-of-Ethics-Business-Conduct.pdf	We recognise that there is an increasing focus on sustainability with our suppliers, particularly in the areas of sustainable sourcing, and working sustainably with our suppliers is a critical part of our strategy. Specifically, the Company and the Group are committed to ensuring that by 2030 we will be a business that sources every ingredient from a sustainable and more fair supply chain. In order to do this, we will continue to work with our suppliers to learn as much as we can about where our ingredients come from and how they are produced. Delivering our sustainability goals will make us more purposeful, make us a better business to work with, make us all prouder to be part of the Company and will ultimately ensure that we make every day taste better by making great food for all, that is accessible, healthier and sustainable going forward and in the long term. In January 2023, the Group Board approved the Group's FY22 Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Transparency Statement. The Company is required to comply with the requirements of this statement as a member of the Group.
